Faith That Becomes Action

Sebrina creates faith-centered experiences that move audiences from inspiration to application.

AUTHOR • SPEAKER • MINISTER

Sebrina Petterson is an author, ordained minister, former youth pastor, educator, and mentor whose work centers on helping people move from hearing faith to living it. Through relatable storytelling, biblical teaching, guided reflection, interactive exercises, and practical next steps, she creates experiences designed to help audiences understand what a message means for their lives and what they can do next.

Her book, Unwavering Faith: A Journey of Trusting God, reflects that same commitment to honest, everyday faith - trusting God through uncertainty, waiting, purpose, growth, and the next step.

"I want people to understand what the message means for their lives and know one step they can take when they walk out of the room."
